NEWBORNS

I'm so excited you want to do newborn photos! These fun sessions are some of my favorites to do and I just love doing all the different scenes for the babies.

These photos are done in-studio and can include some family photo as well.

These sessions take approximately 2 hours. This gives us plenty of time for feeding/snuggle breaks, diaper changes, outfit changes, etc.

I've been doing newborn photos for over 15 years so I have lots of tricks up my sleeve to get baby to stay calm during the session.

We will also discuss the details of the session, outfits, etc.

Once I take your photos, they will be uploaded into an online gallery for you to make your selections from. This is when you decide how many images you want, what fits the budget, and which package you wish to purchase.
